Harmony Public Schools Students Host 1st Annual “We Can” Competition

Students completely designed and created contest; materials used support the Houston Food Bank.

WHAT: We Can Competition

Harmony Public School students will host their first ever “We Can” competition on Saturday, March 28. The competition will use canned goods from HEB to help construct art. “We Can” is the vision of a Harmony student who had participated with a larger group outside of the HPS school system. Students also coordinated the collection of sponsors from various members of the Houston business community. Judges will vote on which of the pieces will be deemed the winner. At the conclusion of the project, all the used materials will be taken to the Houston Food Bank.

Visit, <http://wecancompetition.weebly.com/>, for more information. There will also be a live twitter chat starting at 2 p.m. from the build site. To follow along via Twitter, please use hashtag #WeCan2015 or register and follow via Twubs at <http://twubs.com/WeCan2015>.
